

Professor Richard Murphy BSc FCA FAIA (Hons)

Short CV – 2019

Qualifications:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • BSc (Social Sciences) Business Economics and Accountancy, University of Southampton, 1979, Upper second • Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, 1982 • Honorary Fellow of the Association of International Accountants for services to the accounting profession, 2017
Current position:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Professor of Practice in International Political Economy, City, University of London. In post since September 2015. • Director, Corporate Accountability Network
Previous positions: (Often running in parallel: only significant appointments shown)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Director Tax Research LLP, 2005 to date • Partner, Fulcrum, Chartered Accountants, 2000 to date • Director, Tax Justice Network, 2003 to 2012, and advisor to date • Member of the Green New Deal, 2008 to date • Director, Fair Tax Mark Ltd, 2013 to date • Director, Cambridge Econometrics Limited, 2016 to date • Senior Partner, Murphy Deeks Nolan, chartered accountants, 1984 to 2000 • Peat Marwick Mitchell & Co, London, 1979 – 1983
Significant achievements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Co-founding the global tax justice movement; • Co-founding the Green New Deal; • Creating the concept of country-by-country reporting and negotiating its introduction of tax at the OECD as part of the BEPS process; • Co-creating the Tax Justice Network Financial Secrecy Index; • Creating the idea of tax accreditation for companies – the Fair Tax Mark; • Defining the term secrecy jurisdiction, now widely used to describe tax havens; • Creating the concept of qualitative tax spillovers.
Awards	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rated as seventh most influential person in the world on international tax issues by International Tax Review in 2013, and highly in many other years • Regularly in the UK Financial Power List published by Accountancy Age since 2006 • The Sheila McKechnie Foundation economic campaigner of the year, 2015
Significant publications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Palan, R., Murphy, R. and Chavagneux, C. 2010. Tax havens: How globalization really works. Cornell University Press • Murphy, R. 2011. The Courageous State. Cambridge: Searching Finance. • Murphy, R. 2015. The Joy of Tax. London: Transworld. • Murphy, R. 2017. Dirty Secrets. London: Verso Books. • Baker, A. and Murphy, R. 2019. The Political Economy of 'Tax Spillover': A New Multilateral Framework. London: Global Policy https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/doi/full/10.1111/1758-5899.12655